

O Lord, save Charles our King. And hear us in the day when we shall call upon thee.

Orémus.

QUÆSUMUS, omnipotens Deus, ut fámulus tuus Carólus Rex nóster, qui tua miseratióne suscepit regni gubernácula, virtútum étiam ómnium percípiat incrementum; quibus decénter ornátus, et vitiórum monstra devitáre, (in tempore belli: hóstes superáre), et ad te qui via, véritas, et vita es, cum Regína consórtē et prole régia gratiósus váleat perveníre. Per Christiū Dóminum nóstrum.

R. Amen.

Let us pray. We beseech thee, almighty God, that thy servant Charles our King, who through thy mercy has undertaken the government of this realm, may also receive an increase of all virtues. Fittingly adorned with these, may he be able to shun all evildoing, (in time of war: to vanquish his enemies,) and, together with the Queen his consort and the royal family, being in thy grace, to come unto thee who art the way, the truth, and the life. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
